

Navigating Chaos: Aviation's Response on 9/11

1- 4 P.M., SEPT. 11, 2010

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS
AT DALLAS
CONFERENCE CENTER
800 W. CAMPBELL RD., RICHARDSON, TX

First-hand Accounts of Pilots and Air Controllers who Dealt with Unprecedented Crisis

A FREE PUBLIC SYMPOSIUM
BY
EUGENE McDERMOTT LIBRARY
SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

Panel Members Include:

- ◆ Lynn Spencer, author of the popular 9/11 book, Touching History, will moderate.
- ◆ Ben Sliney, who gave the historic command to shut down American airspace.
- ◆ Gerald Earwood, whose airliner nearly collided with United 175 before it hit the World Trade Center.
- ◆ Colin Scoggins, who refused to evacuate his air controller's post to provide key information to the military.
- ◆ Joe "Rosey" McGrady, who flew into combat in his National Guard F-15 without weapons.
- ◆ Chuck Savall, who flew an airliner low on fuel while approaching four airports before landing without clearance.

There is no reserved seating, but attendees should register online for a free ticket at:

<http://utdspecialcollections.eventbrite.com>

The UT Dallas campus is undergoing a significant amount of construction. Guests are advised to visit our campus map online at utdallas.edu for updated route, construction and parking information.

For further information contact Carole Thomas at 972-883-2570 or cthomas@utdallas.edu